[KJV] And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

God isn’t willing that any should perish. God could have wiped out Kayin then & there for killing his brother. Instead, by His grace he gave him time to repent. Apparently some of his descendents repented because Rev 7:9 uses the term ‘all’; however the bulk of them didn’t repent, & later drowned in the Flood. Kayin left Eden because he was afraid someone would kill him. [For location of Eden see ‘Garden of Eden Location’ http://www.w-rocs.org/stones/GARDENof%20EDEN_14_stones.pdf ]

[INCASE YOU WERE WONDERING.... Adam & Eve’s sons married Adam & Eve’s daughters, or their brother’s or sister’s descendents {nieces, & grand nieces, & great grand nieces, etc...} depending on when they were born & when they married.... Adam & Eve could have continued having children for close to 900 years! Back then the genetic code was perfect. It didn’t become dangerous to marry close relatives until Moses gave the Ten Commandments about a thousand years after the Flood. By then the genetic code had begun to break down.

Davidson's translation:

Mehujael spelling #1  pg 479  to strike, wipe out or away  ‘smitten of God’

Dr Henry Morris  translation ('The Genesis Record’ pg 145)
Mehujael  ‘God-gives-life’

The Welder’s Wife says that the problem with this is that
#1 in the Hebrew  ‘Mehujael’ is spelled 2 different ways [see below]
#2 is that Jude 14-15 says 'And Enoch also, the 7th from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the LORD cometh with ten thousands of His saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

The natural thing to do is to assume that because the word ends with ‘el’ that it has something to do with God, but Jude 14-16 says that they were ungodly, so if you translate it without ‘God’ in the meaning , it makes more sense. If the word ends with ‘el’ it can also mean something other than ‘God’ as in the following:

Mehujael spelling #1

Methusael

Henry Morris’ translation: ‘God’s-man’ (‘The Genesis Record’ pg 145)

The Welder’s Wife: See #2 in previous name & then below.

Mtushael

Methusael

‘his death-also-demanded’ (The Welder’s Wife) because the first three letters are the same as Methuselah name which means ‘He-dies-&-it-shall-be-sent!’ The first 3 letters say ‘He-dies-&’/‘He-dies-also’. The last three letters mean ‘demanded/requested’

Where did I get this from? Years ago I remember John MacArthur saying that Methuselah means ‘He dies & it shall be sent’. [see 5:21]. Here I am dividing up Methusael the same way.

Cain’s chief descendants’ names in order are
‘To-wet-the-palate’ [Chanok/Enoch] {which was also the name of Cain’s fortified city}
‘City-wanderer’ [Irad]
‘From-Village-First/Strongest!’ & ‘From-Living-First [born person]’ [Mehujael]
‘His-death-also-demanded’ [Methusael]
‘Stream’ [Jabal]
‘River’ [Jabal]
‘Increase/Propogation-Spear/Cain’ [Tubal-Cain] whose mother was ‘Shade (light-blocker)’[Zilla]
‘Delightful Pleasure!’ [Naamah] whose mother was ‘Shade (light-blocker)’[Zilla]
Their names tell a story.
