This is the beginning of the Torah Scroll. (This one is a 150 year old Ashkenazi Torah from Poland. It survived both world wars & at least one fire.)
Ends with ‘& he-is dawn day fourth’ Genesis 1:19.
Bottom half of 1\textsuperscript{st} Column:

6 lines up from bottom, where there is a gap: That is the end of Genesis 2:3. The next section (Beginning of the 6\textsuperscript{th} line up from the bottom of the page) or ‘paragraph’ begins with Genesis 2:4
Genesis 3:3 starts about the middle of the line that disappears at the end.
Genesis 4:1 begins after the space in 2nd line from the bottom.
Ends with ‘because’ (or ‘for’) first word in Genesis 4:24.
Bottom half of 3\textsuperscript{rd} Column:

Ends at ‘Lamech’ in Genesis 5:26
